

H.C. Burleigh Papers

Rogers (vii)

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES
LOCATOR	2324
BOX	11.2 / 53
FILE

①

HELEN THERESA ROGERS

Following a lengthy illness, Miss Helen Theresa Rogers, 11 Mercia Street, Trenton, passed away early Monday evening, July 20th, in her 84th year. Miss Rogers was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rogers and had been a highly esteemed resident of Trenton for a number of years. She was a member of Grace United Church.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. D. W. Dulmage of Brighton; two nieces, Mrs. Primrose of Seattle, Washington, and Mrs. B. F. Maybee of Brighton, and a nephew, Mr. Ray Freeman of Brighton. Miss Rogers was predeceased by a sister, Mrs. Crandall, several years ago.

The remains rested at the McNair Funeral Home, Elgin Street, where the funeral service was conducted by the Rev. J. G. McKee on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Pall bearers were Messrs. E. Rogers, James Rogers, N. Bellyou, F. Bellyou, E. Allison and M. Way.

Interment was made in Smithfield Cemetery.

1942

School boys have been replaced by some experienced help throughout the season.

PORT HOPE SOLDIERS
NOW SERVING OVERSEAS
TO SEE FOLKS IN MOVIES

Families of Port Hope men serving overseas were in the "movies" Tuesday morning when a photographer from the National Film Board photographed them as part of a nationwide film of soldiers' families which will later be shown overseas. Landmarks of the town which are familiar to the Port Hope boys overseas were also photographed. The pictures of the soldiers' relatives were taken at Central Park.

EVENING AUXILIARY
HELD POT LUCK SUPPER
MADE PRESENTATION

The young ladies Evening Auxiliary of Trinity - St. Andrew's United Church, Brighton, held a pot luck supper on the church lawn

